University of Southern Mississippi Progressive Discipline Policy for Faculty

Policy Statement

This progressive discipline policy applies to situations absent in other university policies. This policy is intended to address and remedy workplace situations requiring immediate attention, but do not merit initiation of proceedings leading to the termination of employment. This policy does not cover situations involving contumacious conduct, malfeasance, Title IX, scholarly misconduct, inefficiency, cause, or criminal conduct. This policy applies to the Corps of Instruction as defined in the Faculty Handbook as well as visiting instructors and visiting professors. Examples of conduct covered by this policy include, but are

Step 1: Verbal warning

The school director verbally communicates the concern with the faculty member in a private meeting. The ~~school director communicates the issue to the faculty member, who the issue is a concern and the suggested~~

~~particular actions to be taken by the faculty member to remedy the situation. The school director~~

~~communicates to the faculty member the time frame for resolution of the situation and indicates to the~~

Failure to achieve resolution of the situation at the censure stage can result in the initiation of proceedings leading to the termination of employment.

In consultation with the dean, the school director composes a letter of censure to the faculty member that must include: 1) a detailed description of the situation, 2) a reason why the situation merits censure, 3) the penalties that are to be imposed on the faculty member, 4) the corrective actions the faculty member must
