

Approved by Department of the Faculty

GUIDELINES FORTENURE, PROMOTION AND

Department

The University of South Florida

I. Criteria for Appointment to Faculty Rank

A. Faculty holding the rank of Professor are expected to:

- o To hold a doctoral (M.F.A., or other terminal degree) and appropriate credentials in the discipline
- o To demonstrate continued effective teaching and a commitment to deepening skills as a master teacher.
- o To have a solid record of successful creative and/or scholarly work at a level of distinction among the peers of their discipline.
 - o A unique perspective is developed and shared
 - o A clear point of view is articulated in creative work
 - o A dedication to further artistic discovery
 - o A continuous body of work exists that reflects current and future developments in the field.
- o To have participated significantly in the professional development of others in ways other than teaching and research
- o To have demonstrated clearly that they can work effectively with students and to have served as leaders among colleagues in the areas of effective mentoring, collaboration and professionalism.

- o level of distinction among the peers of their discipline
- o To have participated in the professional development of others in ways other than teaching and research
- o

